

Hint'ums Vol 29 - April Blessings

Wishing you showers of blessings :)

WORD LIST:

- Beautiful yellow flowers that pop up just before spring and remind us that "Sunday" --our hope--is coming!
- The holiday we keep to remember Jesus' sacrifice
- Gather the family and grab little baskets; we're going on a search for hidden treasure!
- This is the day the Lord hung on the cross.
- gives relief to the ears that hear it :)
- Forgiveness extended out of love and patience and forbearance. When given, it is always undeserved.
- The looking forward to a miracle or good turn of events. It's our anchor and the "assurance of things not seen."
- little, candy-coated and has a chewy center. There's many to a handful and lots of flavors!
- Something we all need. It's the most basic and necessary of all human needs.
- relenting or looking favorably with pity on someone. When your heart turns toward someone's situation. This can be either deserved or undeserved.
- When one has this, they are calm, secure and well in spirit; A deep wellness or assurance.
- Two words: Our names are cleared and our slates are blank because of the _____ we've been afforded by the cross. AND the bringing back to goodness; when we are made new and given a new prime :)
- When all the flowers start to bud and all the trees flower. It's the bees' favorite season!

- A day of hope. This is the day the Lord rose from the grave!
